Introduction

What are e-books?-There was a growing interest in converting paper of all books to bytes as well as writing new titles in digital form. This was turned has resulted in collection of hybrid definitions of e-books learning. Initially, books of paper that had been converted to digital format, usually through digitizing processes, in which allows them to be displayed on computers, it defined as e-books. Then, the term also began to encompass multimedia, hypertext or hypermedia systems those are based on a book metaphor It can be read as email, can be retrieved by a portable electronic reading device, or as a file that can be downloaded on to a computer. Because of this the e-book learning studying process will became so easy for the students and the educators. Whenever they want they can access the webpage and they can search their wanted books to read or to learn. The publishing processes and how to build e-books, using e-book compilers are explained well. The final part of this paper highlights the use of e-books to improve the interaction between the students and the educators and to improve access to learning materials and not only with pc can it be available in android mobiles also.

The images of the studying material can be zoomed for the clear solution and the tough process of taking care of destroying paper book materials hereafter won't be there. Because here we can save, copy and paste the e-books where u wants, so it won't be last. It can use for our more generations everlasting.

E-Books in Distance Education

E-books have potential in enhancing distance education. In particularly, e-books are able to enhance the interaction between students and Educators when dealing with learning materials and teaching.

The instructions were delivered with a set of lecture notes. Students are also instructed to download Microsoft Reader into their pc and read the lecture notes that's containing the information about how to use Microsoft Reader, the assignments, how to submit it to the lecturer how to build an e-book from their completed assignments. They were also asked to treat the notes as if they were reading a printed version. The completed assignments were read and marked by the lecturer using Microsoft Reader. The explanations, drawing and highlighting features in the reader were used extensively by the lecturer. Marked assignments containing the lecturer's explanations and comments were sent back to the students. At the end of the experiments, their experiences were noted, paying particular attention to advantages and disadvantages comments.

Main Approach of Saveetha E-Book Learning

This idea is about the useful studying process of the students and the educators. From their own place wherever whenever they want they can access the saveetha main home page and search with the e-book options already available. Which they want to learn. They can get all kinds of books. Here all books are available which are all uploaded as well as the availability of books. The whole saveetha university can access this and can use this webpage. They even can download the books and they can read it offline. But the book of pages contains the saveetha determinations, for the authority of book providers.

Home Page

In this home page of saveetha e-book learning, here the students can get the information about the Saveetha College and other details and what's going on in the college up to now. It will be uploaded. The person who wants to buy or download the book. For them login options are available in the left top corner of the page. And there is box included in the page it's for the advertisements and the sponsorships production. The study material details also included in it.

Saveetha E-book

Here this webpage of e-book containing the collections of books. It's not only for within the department students it's for all over the saveetha university of medical, dental, physiotherapy, law, management and engineering students. Every kind collection of books will be uploaded. This page is up to date availability of information's. here the books views in a reading model. It can be viewed in a two side of the pages. It is also available in PDF, that you can ask as a question. But here the books are not PDF files. Because each and every pages all are converted into JPEG image format. If the persons feel that paper books are better to read then here they can feel it as a paper model.

This JPEG image format helps to view it as natural studying material. For each page I have included a small image graphics for the interesting view of book. That is the pages are turning to other pages while using the mouse pointer in the left or right most corner of the pages. The images get some graphics view for sliding. You can drag the page using the mouse pointer that will give you some image view effects. It will give some more interest to read the book page by page.

More options are available in this page. They are in the below of book a tab is available, their you can zoom in, zoom out the pages and optionally to move the pages we can type the page number in the “GO” tab. Full screen option also available.

With these students and the educators can sit relax and learn well. The black background won't hurt the eyes that much for an hour and hour of continuous studying process for the normal human being.

After the each book another alphabetical ordered books will be available. May be because of many books are included with this webpage so the searching process will be some more tedious to find out the needed books to learn for the students and the educators. So here the search bar is added in the top of the page. Their they can search the books by entering the name of book or the author name.

Books Purchasing

The book purchasing process was available in the “contact us” menu. There in that page last views you can give with a Subscribe to News Letter bar. There the students or the educators can request for the book needed by mentioning the book name or author name of the book to purchase.

Directly the book cannot be downloaded by anyone because it was restricted. And also because it is not in the PDF file format it's in the JPEG file format. If anyone tries to get the book by downloading each pages by right clicking on the pages of image by selecting the option 'save image as'.

It can be possible but for a normal human being it cannot be possible for more than a 50-100 pages of count. If they are downloading by this page by page method that also included with the page authority of saveetha university. So it can be known by seeing the pages itself it belongs to the saveetha college e-book pages.

If the students or the educators send the details of the book for purchasing then it will be given them by any format they want. If they choosing the PDF format book they can get it by the way. But it costs with the depends of format.

If they have any doubt with the book they can check and chat with the authority members

This page is get connected with the social networks And it specialized the popular tags available and recent posts from the WebPages will also be available for the more interaction of the students with their college.

Mobile facility of e-book learning

This webpage of e-book learning not only available in pc's it is also available in mobiles. For the generation peoples everyone have their own mobiles. So everyone needs to have this kind of useful webpages will be available in mobile also.

So the wishes of students and the educators are now ready for the approach. And whatever the facilities available in the pc are that also available here. With the domainof www.saveethae-booklearning.com . But here this is just for the idea of understanding the domain is given.

Conclusion:

So this webpage is totally for the learning process mainly for the students and the educators of the Saveetha University. And also this page can be used by other college's students. Many of them are searching for a book by wasting their time on the streets of shops. But with this webpage of e-book learning it gives the facility of searching all the books being stayed in one place. Whatever and whenever they want they can open this webpage on the pc's or the mobile and get make use of their knowledge saving their time also.
